

Cookies Policy

Welcome to Jersey Airtel Limited and Guernsey Airtel Limited's ("Airtel") cookie policy.

Airtel may use "cookies" on its website(s). A "cookie" is a type of information that a website puts on your hard drive so that it can remember pieces of information about you when you next visit the website or a related website.

Airtel uses cookies to record personal data about you when you use its website in order to facilitate your future activities. Airtel may use personal data sent in a cookie for marketing purposes and will not share this personal data with third parties for their own marketing purposes. If you prefer not to receive cookies from Airtel's website, you can set your browser to warn you before accepting cookies and refuse the cookie when your browser alerts you to its presence. You can also refuse cookies by turning them off in your browser, but this may impair your experience of Airtel's website.

If you prefer not to receive cookies from Airtel's website, you can set your browser to warn you before accepting cookies and refuse the cookie when your browser alerts you to its presence. You can also refuse cookies by turning them off in your browser, but this may impair your experience of Airtel's website. For step by step instructions on how to disable cookies click the 'help' section in your web browser.

Airtel use Google Analytics cookies to gather information regarding how customers use the website. The cookies collect anonymous information including visitor numbers, areas most visited on our website and route to site.