The Service Provider may amend, vary or supplement any terms and conditions of the Agreement by giving notice to the Customer in accordance with clause 14 hereof. Such amendment, variation or supplement shall have the effect of varying the Agreement or any other terms or conditions of the Service Provider in the manner stated in the publication or notice and shall be effective fifteen (15) days after the date of publication or posting of the notice unless otherwise stated. The Customer's continued use of the Service after the effective date of such notice shall constitute acceptance of the amendment, variation or supplement.

17. Severability and Waiver

If any part or any provision of the Agreement is or becomes illegal, invalid or unenforceable, that part or provision shall be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability only, without in any way affecting the validity or enforceability of the remaining parts of said provision or the remaining provisions of the Agreement. No waiver by either party to any provisions of the Agreement shall be binding unless made in writing. The failure by either party to enforce at any time for any period any one or more of the terms or conditions of the Agreement shall not be a waiver of them or of the right at any time subsequently to enforce all terms and conditions to the Agreement.
